Stevens & Hand, PLLC Announces Expansion of Real Estate Law Office

CARY, N.C. (Nov. 18, 2008) – Stevens & Hand, PLLC, which specializes in real estate law and wills, announces plans to expand their law office to meet the needs of an increasing customer base. The new office space, which will be adjacent to the firm’s current location at 547 Keisler Drive, will feature a larger reception area, twice the meeting space, an additional law partner office and redesigned work spaces.

By doubling the available meeting space, the growing legal team at Stevens & Hand can simultaneously serve more clients with varying legal needs for real estate closings, refinances, wills, powers-of-attorneys and living wills. The new reception area will be designed to accommodate the increasing number of office visits, and the overall flow of the office will be adjusted to enhance efficiency to match the firm’s growth.

“We are very excited about the growth of our office,” said Rebecca Stevens, managing partner. “With the addition of Kara Daniels Hand as a new partner this year, the public has responded positively, and our client base has grown significantly. We see this as a natural progression to ensure timely, efficient services for our long-standing, loyal clients and our new customers.”
